Pitch. Present. Close.

The Gentleman's Suite at Kameha Grand Zurich Hotel, Switzerland is definitely Bond-esque, musing over luminaries such as Daniel Craig, David Gandy and James Dean and creating an atmosphere of suave sophistication. It was created as one of 11 themed suites at Kameha Grand Zurich and represents the creative flair of award-winning Dutch designer Marcel Wanders, praised as the "Lady Gaga of design" by The New York Times.

Features include:

- Rich leather interiors
- Roulette table with chips
- Golden cannon floor lamp
- Glamorous globe minibar containing varieties of whiskey

Guests can also visit the Kameha Spa for gentlemanly treatments, such as sports massages and jetlag recovery facials using products by uber-luxe Artemis of Switzerland. Also visit the 24-hour gym and relax (or dodge bullets) on rooftop sun loungers.

True Bond diplomacy can also be struck over fine culinary delights in the Italian and Japanese restaurants, exquisite martinis in the Puregold Bar or Cuban cigars in the exotic Smokers or Shisha Lounge.

Kulm Hotel, St. Moritz, Switzerland

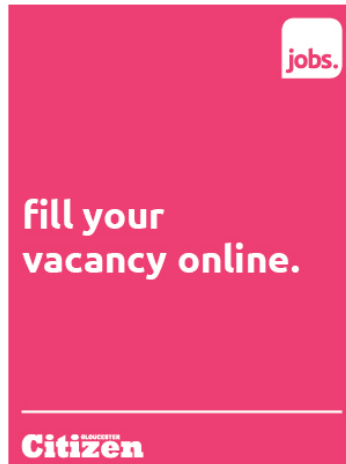

Located in the heart of the world-famous Swiss ski and spa resort, with breathtaking views over Lake St. Moritz, which is often bathed in brilliant sunlight. Dating back 150 years, the grand old building of the Kulm has an incomparable air of luxury, tradition, modern comfort and warm hospitality.

The Kulm Hotel St. Moritz has 172 rooms, junior and luxury suites of varying sizes, all fitted with fine wooden furniture, elegant colours, premium materials and selected elements of local handicraft. Charming accessories, the highest comfort and the use of discreet technology are to be found in all the rooms.

Entertainment and sports facilities include the nine-hole Kulm Golf Course St. Moritz, three tennis courts, a natural ice rink, a curling field and the Marmotta kids' club. The Kulm Hotel St. Moritz is inextricably linked to the Cresta Run, which was built within the hotel's grounds in 1891. To this day, tobogganing pilots congregate in the Kulm's Sunny Bar, which is Switzerland's oldest sports bar; the walls of the bar are lined with trophies and images of famous people who have hurled themselves down the infamous ice track.

Winning the Sexiest Hotel Room in the World Award at The Smith Awards last year, Suite 57 at Viceroy New York has soaring views of Central Park and serves as a haven where guests can relax above the hustle and bustle of Manhattan's West 57th Street in the suite's king-sized bed or marble bath tub.

Guests in search of glamour can head to cocktail bar, The Roof. Worthy of being a Bond scene backdrop, the space evokes the aesthetic of a luxury yacht complete with ipe wood floors and brass details. Bespoke cocktails are served from the rum-laced Neverland to the refreshing cucumber Margarita, as well as Bond's favourite tipples (shaken not stirred, naturally).

With breathtaking and spectacular views looking out towards the majestic Pitons Mountains, the Jade Mountain resort in St Lucia is the perfect tropical getaway for Bond and his female companion(s).

One of the many unique elements about this ultra-luxurious hotel is that there is no fourth wall to the hotel rooms. Guests are able to gaze out over the tropical lagoon as soon as they wake up, take a dip in their own private infinity pools and witness some of the most stunning sunsets in the world.

There hasn't been any filming at this hotel, but the design is very Bond-esque and is popular with the A-listers and the super rich. Guests include Ellie Goulding, the Olsen twins, health food addict Deliciously Ella, who have all stayed there recently.

Part of the 600-acre estate is two beautiful, natural, soft sand beaches with endless luxury activities, including scuba diving, kayaking, sunfish sailing and windsurfing. There is also a luxury spa where guests can choose personal treatments from a carefully selected menu.
