Suite Seduction: Valentine's Day with Kameha Grand Zurich

by Emily Georgiou February 8, 2016 29

This Valentine's Day, Autograph Collection's Kameha Grand Zurich Hotel is presenting guests with the opportunity to escape the everyday routine of life and indulge in unashamed sensual serenity with an exclusive 'Menu L'Amore' dinner, risqué Burlesque Suite and Fifty Shades of You package. Whether you are hoping to spoil your partner with lavish chocolates or a selection of Agent Provocateur surprises, the hotel is filled with an array of inspiring and stimulating lifestyle experiences set to thrill.

Spice up your love life with a night in the risqué Burlesque Suite which will titillate guests with features such as Agent Provocateur handcuffs and silk satin – the creative flair of award-winning Dutch designer Marcel Wanders, praised as the “Lady Gaga of design” by The New York Times. Here at Hero & Leander we are in love with the ambience of irresistibility that this suite conjures up, with textures of velvet and tulle throughout. Tones of black and siren red feature heavily within the suite's floral carpet, lace lamp and a box of Agent Provocateur surprises, including handcuffs, masks and whip amongst others; ideal for those looking for a little more raunch than romance.
